“Humility perfects us in what concerns God, and meekness in what concerns our neighbor.”
– St. Francis de Sales

Confession Question:

“Due to many years of not going to confession, a few grave sins were not mentioned when I finally went. Just now I realized that I probably missed some grave sins. My conscience is bothering me now and questioning my state of grace.”

Answer:

“If the sins were genuinely forgotten at the time of the Confession, then they were forgiven in the absolution. If they were intentionally not mentioned, then they were not forgiven.”

“La humildad nos perfecciona en lo que se refiere a Dios, y la mansedumbre en lo que se refiere a nuestro prójimo.” - San Francisco de Sales

Confesión Pregunta:

“Debido a muchos años de no ir a la confesión, unos pecados graves no fueron mencionados cuando finalmente fui. Hace un momento me di cuenta de que probablemente no mencione algunos pecados graves. Mi conciencia me está molestando ahora y cuestiono mi estado de gracia.”

Respuesta:

“Si los pecados fueron genuinamente olvidados en el momento de la confesión, entonces ellos fueron perdonados en la absolución. Si intencionalmente no se mencionaron, entonces no fueron perdonados. “
